“ My condolences to the Kieffer family. Barb ensured that I was well taken care of when I was in Florida after my cousin Ken's passing. I found her to be generous and caring and very concerned with my well being during this difficult time. Rest in peace and you are now with Ken, Chris, your daughter and husband for eternity.

“ Barb was a wonderful mother in law. She was fiercely protective of her family. She was generous and think it safe to say a very fiesty gal. She wasn't shy on letting you know her opinion. She was loved by many. I will miss our phone calls and visits.

“ Remembering Barb as we think of Bud, Teri, Tyler and the other family members. Barb was a generous, to the point kind of gal that was proud of her family. She had a friendship with our late mom in Davison when she visited from Florida. They spent many evenings in their driveways in lawn chairs talking as the sun set. Friends, you're in our thoughts and prayers as she's passed on. Peace and love, Brian and Marcia
