“ My Dad was an extraordinarily good man. Having recently been to his service, where many of his friends, caregivers, children and grandchildren attended, we should all be so lucky and fortunate as to have such positive and heartfelt eulogies read at our own services some day. Just an amazing outpouring of love and respect for this man. Father you were the best, and we will miss you so much. Be with mom, the love of your life, now. We'll see you again some day.
