“ Growing up down the street from the O'Connor clan you never knew what to expect...except, that it was a loving and gracious family. Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor raised beautiful and loving children which multiplied into wonderful and loving grandchildren and great grandchildren. What a wonderful and true legacy!

I remember how funny Mr. O'Connor was and how welcomed I always felt in their home. We will all miss this wonderful man who has gone home to his beautiful daughter and my best friend Kathleen!

*Rest in Peace

“ R.I.P., Al. Your kindness during and after my most recent visit to Florida will not be forgotten. You were a Prince among men, to be sure.

“ For as long as I can remember, grandpa was always lecturing. I didn't always understand what he was talking about or meant, but I knew whatever he was talking about was real and important. Some things I still don't understand, but others make perfect sense now. "There's no such thing as a free lunch" was the one I remember most. I will strl've to follow the rules and lessons you have taught me and do my best to make you proud. Thank you for being amazing! I love you always! (I should've just named Peyton, Jacko! Hahaha)
