“ Dr. Vanessa and family, we are sad for the hole in your hearts. We (Bill and Donna) enjoyed meeting and visiting with your son at the office. He indeed was a gift to us as well. All children give joy and love to those around them. Our happiness is that in heaven there are no boundaries and along with his grandpa he will always be with you. Bill and Donna Torrance

“ Buster gifted our family w opportunities to learn and express compassion and patience that we might otherwise have never known. He struggled thru the bad days and smiled thru the good ones w/o questioning the difficulties. He sweetly reaffirmed my steadfast belief that nothing is more important than family. He showed me what a devoted, patient, determined, God loving, person his daddy is. He brought forth the loving, ferocious yet gentle, faithful nature of his mommy. And he helped to instill the deep tenderness exhibited by his little brother and sister who defended and protected him, bragged about him, prayed for him, cuddled him, appreciated him, and never failed to express their love to and for him in ways that only innocent children can do. I'm so proud of Alexander and this beautiful family. I am thankful for over 10 glorious years of wonderful memories that he is part of, and often, central to. It's been my privilege to be part of his life, to hold his hands, to hold and sooth him, to laugh with him - yes, he did laugh with us - . He made a profound, eternal effect on our lives.
