“ My heart broke yesterday when I heard...Dearest Allie, I cared for you like a daughter. I know we lost touch in the past few years but you were always a beautiful soul. Heaven gained an Angel. You deserve so much more than I can type. I know how much you loved and protected your brother , I know your watching over him now. God bless such a beautiful, young soul who's destination was not here on earth long but your life here affected so many. I love you so dear. I will always treasure the younger years I knew you...May you find peace in the arms of an Angel. Always and Forever, J&K&R&C

“ Allie and I met in highschool and had such a great time in class together. We moved on to FGCU and spent our first semesters together in between every class. Upon hearing this news I was beside myself: Allie was such a fun, loving spirit and will be missed.

“ *I met Allie back in high school and I wish somehow we could go back. Back to when we both worked at Coldstone and had sleep overs every weekend. You are so much more than you gave your self create for. You always believed in people even if they didn't deserve your kind words.
I miss you so much.
I love you.*

“ We met sophomore year of high school and we've been sisters ever since. I will miss our sushi dates, line dancing nights, the rants about boys, our wedding dreams, your obnoxious laugh and always telling me how funny I am. I will miss you and all the light you brought to my life. I can only hope I brought you the same happiness and love that you always made a point to share with me. I will forever miss you and hope you're at peace. We will meet again one day.

*Love,
Kayleigh*
