

Andrew Conor Doyle

December 26, 1982 - August 26, 2024

Andrew Conor Doyle was born on December 26, 1982, in Cleveland, Ohio, to Charles J. Doyle, MD (deceased 2017) and Mary A. Doyle. Andrew was the beloved fifth child of the Doyle family, arriving as a joyous surprise just after Christmas day.

Andrew brought immense happiness to his family and was cherished by his siblings and parents alike. His arrival was seen as a special gift, bringing renewed energy and delight to the Doyle household.

Andrew received his early education at Old Trail School, where he formed lifelong friendships. He continued his studies at Walsh Jesuit High School before earning his bachelor's degree in Business from DePaul University in Chicago, Illinois.

After graduating from DePaul University, Andrew embarked on a dynamic career in the business world. He took on pivotal roles in sales and supported high-growth American startups in managing their HR solutions. His career led him to diverse locations such as Mumbai, India, Bristol, England, San Francisco, Seattle, and Denver, where he excelled in driving revenue growth and fostering long-lasting relationships with clients.

Andrew cultivated a deep love for music throughout his life, attending numerous concerts and festivals with family and friends. He even starred in a music video for the band Fatso Jetson's song "Light Yourself on Fire." Andrew was an avid golfer and snowboarder, finding great joy in both activities and mastering them with ease.

In 2015, Andrew met Amelia Gonzalez, and they later married in 2018 in a small ceremony overlooking Lake Washington. After five years, the marriage ended amicably.

Andrew is survived by his mother, Mary Doyle; his siblings: John (Alicia), Dan (fiancée Nancy DeSantis), Peter, and Sally (Gustavo) Morais. He was a loving uncle to his nieces, Andrea (Henry) Philip and Jacqueline (Joe) Zhou and nephew, Marcos Morais.

Andrew will be remembered fondly for the happiness he brought, for his adventurous and sweet spirit, and for the warmth he shared with those around him. His legacy lives on in the memories of his loving family and in the hearts of those who knew him best.

A memorial mass will be held at St. Leo the Great Catholic Church in Bonita Springs, Florida, on Friday, January 24, 2025, at 11:00 AM. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to a charity of your choice.

To sign his guest register or to leave online condolences, please visit www.ShikanyFuneralHome.com.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home, Family Owned and Operated Since 1978.

“ Andrew and I were schoolmates at Old Trail and Walsh Jesuit, and as one of my brother's best friends, he was a consistent presence in my childhood. I haven't seen him in quite a while, but I think of him, and I will sorely miss him. My fondest memories are the times we spent snowboarding, such as pictured here at Mount Hood, Oregon for snowboard summer camp and on the gondola at Keystone, Colorado. I will warmly remember Andrew's wit and easygoing nature. To the Doyle family, I am so sorry for your loss, and I hope that you will find a measure of comfort in knowing how Andrew brightened his friends' lives.
