

Ann Marie (Lawson) Reed-Berry

February 4, 1931 - April 6, 2025

Ann Marie (Lawson) Reed Berry entered the world on February 4, 1931, the beloved daughter of William and Mary Lawson. Ann entered eternal life on April 6, 2025. Ann had a special devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the rosary.

Born in Chicago, Ann moved to Macy, IN where she graduated high school. She met and married Kenneth Reed in 1949. Together, they raised three sons.

After being widowed in 1999, Ann began to spend winters in Naples, FL. As she participated in a community variety show she met a widower, Earl W. Berry. Their Midwestern backgrounds and shared love of music and travel led them to marry in 2002. They enjoyed fourteen happy years together before Earl passed in 2017.

Ann is survived by sons, David (Pam) of Andrews, IN and Michael (Maureen) of Naples, FL, and stepsons, Bruce Barry (Nancy) of St. Paul, MN, Mark Berry (Dan Schmidt) of Palm Springs, CA and Greg Givens of Naples, FL. Her son Daniel Reed passed away in 2018. She is survived by her brother, William (Roxanne) Lawson of Kokomo, IN and her sister, Linda (Melvin) Spear of Mexico, IN. Her sister-in-law Carol Reed Fike survives in Fort Pierce, FL. In addition, Ann is survived by numerous dear nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great grandchildren and friends. She loved and cherished everyone!
