“ I worked with Annette at Domanics and remember her laugh. I also visited her and Robert after they moved. She shared much of the area with me and my two brothers and was quite saddened by this news. RIP Annette as you begin your new life with Jesus! I'll miss you.

“ Nettie was one of the sweetest most loving beautiful ladies you would ever have the pleasure of meeting. Always smiling, had a great sense of humor and was so very proud of her husband Bob, of her children, grand children, sisters and her entire family. She will be greatly missed and at the same time we know that she no longer has pain and will live an eternity with our almighty Father in heaven. We pray that the family will be strong and get through this very sad time. God Bless You all now & always.
