Just today I learned of the passing of Tony Pullos. I had the pleasure of working for Tony at American Property Management in Schaumburg when I was young. Tony was intelligent, funny and kind. He fostered the growth of one of the most successful property management companies in Illinois. People were naturally drawn to Tony. I remember his laugh, smile, eagerness to lend an ear even when very busy and his willingness to help others. Because of Tony others went on to grow in the real estate industry. Some of us went on to further our careers at First American Title Insurance and for Chicago Title Insurance Company. I don't recall Tony speaking ill of anyone, even during disputes. He chose to be happy - something we all should do. Choosing happiness is a conscious decision, despite all obstacles. I knew and worked for Roxanne. I even met Audrey briefly once. Tony was very loved. Before his furry friends Wrigley, Sham, Calli & Jake - there was Kelsey. Too ALL who loved him, my heart goes out to you. He was a good man who affected many in good ways. Sincerely, Lisa Cook former employee
