“ Condolences to Nick, Brenda & Pete, Valerie & Steve, Nickie, Dale & Aida, and Stacy & Chris, and Richard from the Myer's. I can never forget how both Diane & Nick were so kind & gracious to my father with dementia. They were true friends to the end; in spite of how much easier it would have been to phase him out of their circle. A person with a big heart has returned home! Sorry for the people left behind!

“ My condolences to you Nick and all of Di's family. God took our beloved one way too soon, but He knows what is best. She had suffered enough and she was ready to go to her well earned reward. Heaven's gain is our loss. Her generous spirit will long be remembered. I have so many fine memories of our times together. So many laughs. She and Jim will have the table all set for us to play. Missy and David will be there also. Thanks my dear friend for all the memories. I love you Di and will always miss you. You will always be remembered in my prayers. Karen

“ My fondest memories of Diane are every Sunday morning @ the 9:00 am mass, Diane would get up & greet my wife Betty with a huge hug & kiss. This always put a smile on Betty's face. She would then turn to me & say how nice that lady was to her. At the time Betty was very sick with cancer & dementia . Thanks Diane for your love & concern for those around you. May gob bless & keep you close to him in your new home in heaven. Love to all your family in this there time of need,Connie Mahoney

“ My dearest Di, We never expected our time together to be cut so short!! There were more trips to Immokalee to be made, especially with you and I,Nick and Karen!! Get the game started up there when you see Jim, so that it's well under way when we all get up there! Hopefully there's enough chocolate up there to get for Jim! Nick, wish we could make it down, but too short a time. We will be down to see you as soon as we can. God Bless. Our loving thoughts and prayers are with you. Love Missy & David

“ To Di's family,

We are deeply sorry for your loss. We hope you all find comfort in the memories you have shared. Our son, Vance, always looked forward to, and loved seeing, Di at church on Sundays either during the children's blessing or immediately following mass. I'm certain she made a positive impression on him for many years to come.

We are saddened to learn of her passing, but blessed to have crossed paths.

With deepest sympathy,

Brian, Kerry and Vance Tate
