

Barbara Pullen

September 2, 1936 - February 4, 2022

Barbara Pullen, beloved wife of Dale Pullen, passed away on Friday February 4th 2022. Barbara was born on September 2, 1936 in Leesburg, Florida to parents Herbert Davison and Betty Boss.

Barbara graduated from Miami Edison High School and attended the University of Florida. She began her family in 1959 residing in Hollywood Florida. Barbara and Dale moved to the Washington DC area in 1966 where Barbara became actively involved in public service organizations.

Barbara and Dale started a publishing business, The US Congress Handbook, in 1973 and she became a respected business woman. Upon retirement she and Dale retired to Naples Florida where they developed many friends. Barbara's strong outreach to people throughout her life brought together the human spirit.

Barbara is survived by her two children, son Claude Pullen and daughter Lorraine James, son in law John, brother, Bill Davison and family, sister, Bettijean Meyer and family, grandchildren Carly and Candace, and great grand gifts Perry and Eve.

A private family service was held at her home shortly after her passing. The family suggests that memorial contributions in memory of Barbara be directed to the American Cancer Society, the ASPCA.

“ Barb was always elegant and refined and put together just so. A perfect foil to Dale's larger than life, playful character. Made-to-order for each other! I hope the loving memories brings comfort and smiles to this beautiful family. The other James Gang sending love.
