“ I was very sorry to hear of Bert's passing. I was in the fraternity house with Bert at Indiana University and got to know him there. Bert had a great sense of humor and was a very kind hearted fellow. I last spoke to him a couple of years ago when he shared his health issues with me and the struggles in which it caused him. I think about him often and when I do it always makes me smile. Rest in peace my brother.

“ I was Bert's girlfriend at Indiana University, and am so deeply saddened to hear of his passing. He taught and shared with me the love of music, and he always kept me laughing with his unique sense of humor! My heart goes out to his Mother Mary, and Jeff and Robert.

“ I am extremely saddened by the loss of my fraternity brother. Bert and I lived next door to each other in the Lambda Chi Alpha house at Indiana University in the mid 80's. Bert was always cheerful and it was a pleasure to hang around him. Bert had a hilarious sense of humor that included playing practical jokes on unsuspecting frat brothers, like me! I lost touch with Bert after graduation as we both went our separate directions, but I would always think back to our days together at IU and smile. He will be missed. RIP brother Beihoff...In ZAX

“ Bert's kindness knew no limits. I'm convinced God gifted me with his warmth and sweetness at a time in my life when I struggled the most. I pray that he is sitting in heaven playing his guitar, loving all the little ones, talking to Jesus and just chuckling at all of us below. My deepest condolences to his beautiful family. I couldn't be more crushed to hear of his passing. May the God of our understanding comfort us as we mourn the passing of someone very, very special. Colleen (Delfeld) Terry

“ Terry: I was deeply saddened to learn of Bert's passing! The death of a loved one, either not unexpected or from a devastating event, is always a surrealistic event, as you have known twice: " I can't believe it has happened!" Nevertheless keep recalling the good times in the family which will help buoy you in during a major family loss.

With sympathy,

“ Terry,

You likely do not recall me, but I was happily Bert's tennis coach while he was a student at Marquette High. Truly a fine young man (top-shelf) in all respects. I have rarely met a young man who so maturely handled sudden disappointments as did Bert (lost doubles' partner, injuries that restricted his play and others less consequential). Please accept my sincerest regrets and sympathies on the loss of your oldest child as a living parent. It happened to both my mother and mother-in-law. Painful experience for both, but time healed for them, too. Would you please extend my sympathies to Jeff and Bob.

“ Hello, I only knew Bert in high school, but he was one of my classmates who stood out & whom I remember pretty well. He was a nice, VERY smart, & funny guy -- a great tennis player that I remember (astounded) was asked by half a dozen girls to attend one dance. Sorry if that's inappropriate here, but I'm trying to express that I would have liked to have been more like Bert in many ways!

“ *Dear Terry,
I read the death notice of your son and was shocked to learn of his passing. We should never have to bury our children. I am so very sorry for your loss. I know no details but regardless of the details my concern now is with those remaining. May your Faith sustain you at this difficult time.*
