“ So sorry to hear about your loss. Bev played table tennis with a bunch of us in Bonita. She was a very happy person. Always smiling and fun to play with. She was very good at table tennis. Was and will be sadly missed.

“ I send my condolences at the loss of your dear one Bev. Bev and her mom Helen became friends of my parents in Bonita Springs. I think my parents, Armin and Judie Pavlovic, first met Bev in her role as a realtor and then Bev and Helen became neighbors and friends. I have many fond memories of seeing Bev and Helen at holidays and when I visited my mom for her March birthday. Here's a photo of them at Christmas one year. I'm glad I got to know Bev and Helen through my parents. It was a pleasure and a joy to spend time with them, and they were wonderful friends to my parents. My mom passed away this year on February 21st, just after Bev, and then my dad passed away on March 25th.
