“ Bobby was more than a cousin to me. We grew up together. Our family always went on trips together and spent the holidays together. I know that will never be the same, but I am thankful we will still have each other to lean on. I loved the camping trips we used to take to peace river. Those have to be my favorite memories. The time you got the three-wheeler stuck in the mud and we couldn't get it out. It sank. It was funny watching you try and try. I remember the inappropriate jokes you used to make at all the wrong times. It wasn't funny then, but it sure seems funny now. I remember your laugh and your smile like it was just yesterday. I remember sitting on my back porch talking with you when I was pregnant with Landen and drinking wine. But my most cherished memory of you was the Christmas Eve you were gone with the army. I remember the phone call like it just happened. You were never an emotional guy, but you told me how much you loved me and cared about me. And how I was always like a sister to you. How you'd protect me from your friends hurting me and how you wished you could be there with us. You'll never understand how much that meant to me. I still smile when I look back on it. I'll always miss you, and I'll always love you. And I'm sorry I didn't say it enough. I pray you'll Rest in Peace. And I can only hope you're in a better place now, Bobby. I love you!

“ It's so disheartening to hear of an old friend and a great guy passing away. We had a lot of great times growing up at the little league fields. The 4th of July when we lit a whole uhaul full of firework off at the little league fields and had a 5 hour cleanup the next day, by far the best 4th to date. Trick or treating on Halloween with Blair your brother and my brother. The list goes on and on. It's hard to really sum any of this up in words. Still doesn't seem real. Rest easy Bobby, you will truly be missed!

“ Lisa, Rob and Matt,

I have started and restarted this post at least twenty times in the last fifteen minutes. Every time I do, what I say just seems so trivial. Saying I'm sorry just isn't enough and nothing is going to make this any better. Although I haven't seen Bobby in years, I will never forget how good he was at driving you crazy, how well he lived life to the fullest always, and how hard he made me laugh on all those trips to Clearwater. There will never be any words to make this better but please know, my entire family is thinking about you and Bobby.

*Love always,
Ingrid*

“ Bobby was one of the most genuine people I have ever met. He always had a smile on his face and made sure whoever he was with did as well. He was that person I could go months without talking to and when I saw him it was like we were never apart. We went to a concert last year and we all froze, I saw this woman with a hot chocolate and said I wonder where you can get those? You said you were going to the bathroom and came back with a hot chocolate, that's just the person you were. You will forever live in the hearts of the people who were blessed enough to meet you. Hope you're catching monsters up there!
