“ I met Carl in 1997 when I went to work at Pelican Nest. He followed me to open and work at two other golf courses over the next 20 years. He was tough on the outside, but if you knew him as I did, you know he had a heart of gold. We played countless rounds of golf together with my dad and my 2 boys. He was considered family so much so that my boys called him Uncle Carl. Carl had a great sense of humor and could tell a story like no one else. I'm sad that he is gone, but so blessed to have so many great memories of our time together. Rest In Peace my friend, hope you and dad are playing some golf again in heaven. I'm blessed to have known you and call you my friend.
