“ Carl had a love for people and pets that was heartwarming and cherished by his friends. His Christian spirit was obvious in his relationship with friends. We personally experienced and appreciated his compassion and heart for others. Carl knew our pomeranians well and when we had to take our 19 year old Luther in to the vet to end his suffering Carl found the exact words to lift our spirits. He said that this was the final act of love and it was. He used his gifts to bring happiness to others. What a great photographer he was. Carl had so many gifts. The photographs that he took of wildlife (especially birds) and our Hershey Bear were beyond professional as they showed depth of feeling and heart. We have several of these in an album and will enjoy them forever. We also loved to discuss our faith with Carl. He had an interest and knowledge of the Old and New Testament and his application in everyday life was a great testimony for others. Most of all we could see how much Carl loved his family and how fond he was of his friends. Whether you had a dead battery and were stranded at Costco's with a trunk full of groceries or you were searching for a new canine for your family you could depend on Carl to help. We will so very much miss our dear friend and regret that we didn't have more time to spend with him. Our thought was always that we would retire and enjoy more time together. Now this will have to be put on hold until the day when we will all be together in our forever home where there is only joy and happiness with our Heavenly Father! We know that this is where Carl is and in the meantime we will remember the good times and the gentle and kind spirit that made this world a better place. With loving memories and gratitude for our dear friend, Carol and Gary Hilleary (and Hershey Bear Hilleary who was found and named by Carl and Irene when he was 8 weeks old!)
