“ Don and I were thankful to be at Carol’s memorial service. It was a beautiful tribute to her love, faith, courage and strength. God promises that “for those who love [Him] all things work together for good, for those who are called according to His purpose.” Romans 8:28. God can take our struggles and pain and all the things our enemy meant for evil, and turn those around for good. I pray He will redeem Carol’s suffering by drawing us all close to Him, with good changes, true freedom, and real healing in each of our lives. I believe Carol would want that as her legacy. We can already see Carol having an impact in our family. With love, Cyndy Blackwell

“ I wish I could see you One more time, come walking through the door... but I know that is impossible, I will hear your voice no more. I know you can feel my tears & you don't want me to cry, yet my heart is broken because I can't understand why someone so precious to me had to die. I pray that god will give me strength & somehow get me through... as I struggle immensely with the heartache that came when i lost you💔

“ My beloved, beloved best friend, my sister Carol, may God's love and the Holy Spirit whom you were so devoted to, bring you all of Heaven's beauty and love abounding in your life each day in Heaven in the presence of Jesus Christ, our Savior, whom you loved deeply in your heart each day of your earthly life. And may our Loving Heavenly Father bring, to you, her dear family -her beloved children Matthew and Carina and her beloved fiance Tom- His comfort and peace at this time of profound grief.

“ *To my best friend/mom:
A million times I've needed you. A million times I've cried. If love alone could have saved you, you would have never died. In life I loved you dearly, in death, I love you still. In my heart, you hold a place no one else can fill. It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone part of me went with you, The day God called you home. Until we meet again I love you with all my heart! Xoxo Panda*
