“ My sincere condolences to all of Carol's family. I had the opportunity to work with Carol for many years at Weight Watchers. We spent lots of time sharing our love of books, shopping, and wine! The only thing we didn't share was Carol's love of the hot summer weather in Florida. I will miss you, Carol, but take comfort that you are in a better place. Debbie Murphy

“ I worked with Carol many years. She was always honest, sometimes brutally so, and extremely generous. On many occasions Carol would tell me that she had items to donate to St. Vincent de Paul thrift store (where I volunteered). I would get them from her auto and bring them there. Everytime I would fill out a donation slip for her taxes- which she always refused. Her generous donations not only helped the organization but the many others who benefited from them.

“ I am so sad but fortunate to have know Carol over 40years.z I loved her and miss her blunt remarks and opinions and her crazy sense of humor. One of my favorite memories is I came to work one day. I thought I really looked great in a new outfit(I was in Sales). She said where did you get that skirt. I thought she was going to compliment me. She had a way to sarcastically say things. I said to her do you like it. She said I would never wear that again. She hated it and thought it looked terrible. I told her she was nuts! Guess what. I never wore it again. I am heart broken to hear Mac has passed away. We worked together at BAX Global and we were great friends, still kept in touch. Carol was such a great person with a smart sharp attitude that was awesome. She never hid the eye roll. Lol. We often had lunch together always filled with lots of laughs. So many great memories. My condolences to Steve, daughters and family. I will miss you Mac. Rest well my friend.

“ *I know we had drifted thru the years and was so happy to reconnect with you!
I'm happy you followed your dream to move to Bonita Springs.
We laughed. We cried and shared many times together.
I'm proud to call you my friend and will miss you dearly.
Keep smiling and entertaining those behind the Pearly Gates!*

“ Condolences to Steve, Nickie, Kim, and all the extended family members.

Carol was a beautiful person inside and out. She loved their home with the beautiful pool, plantings and unique decorative features.

The orchid collection was special too.

I shall miss her and remember her good nature, her faith, inquisitive mind, unending energy and the fun we had. We will miss you Mac!

Love, Bruce and Veronica

Our thoughts are with you Steve, Nicki, and Kim. We were so saddened of the news of Mac passing. As Halloween comes near, I am thinking of her spirit and her love for the holiday. We are thinking of you and know that Mac is in a better place with God where there is no suffering.

All of our love, Sal and Jeannine
