“ To the family of Carol Netzer, I am so saddened to hear the news that Carol has passed. I had known Carol for well over 15 years, as she was one of my friends that worked at Betty Mclean Travel. I met Carol back in 2004 when I first called on the travel agency and we became fast friends. Carol always had a smile on her face and some funny story to tell me when I came in for my visits. I will miss her, but I know that she is up there under God's care now, and talking about all her travel adventures. May you rest in peace my dear.

“ Carol was such a wonderful person inside and out. I had the pleasure of working with her for 5 years and she soon became "family" and continued to arrange all travel for my parents (who will miss her dearly, as well). Her laugh and positive outlook was contagious. I recently reconnected with her to plan a trip and we had discussed plans to get together regularly. I feel grateful to have known her and had her in my life.

You always made my day when I visited. I loved reminiscing about Jersey and people we knew back when. Your travel industry family and friends will miss you greatly and our prayers are with your family. Thank you for being you. Kim G
