“ Sending our love and our deepest sympathy to Uncle Joe and family for the loss of our beloved Aunt Carol. She had a heart of gold and was always so loving towards all of us. She never missed a birthday or special occasion by sending a funny or a sincere greeting card. We are so thankful for all the wonderful memories and special times spent with her. One of the most memorable being the family Tiger game we attended in Detroit. Laughing all the way back home to Oxford. (A few Shenanigans took place that night) and so many more memories to cherish. She will forever hold a special place in our hearts.

We wish we could be there with you all.

*With love,
Mike and Kim Mclsaac*
