“ I met Jodi and Chuck when I was a housemate of Jodi's at Lesley University back in the early 70's. The three of us would spend many a night driving around Cambridge and Boston and Chuck would appear at our dorm in his ambulance when he had a slow night! Chuck's sense of humor never took a rest (even in tough times) and he loved to "needle" people just to get a rise out of them. I was in their wedding and Jodi was in mine. Our friendship has been a strong one over 40 years. Chuck always made people feel loved and important. He told you like it was and that's an admirable trait. His adoration and devotion to Jodi was enviable. He was her biggest fan and cheerleader. He had such pride in his family. He was taken way too early. To say he'll be missed is an understatement. With Much Love, Judi Melby and Family
