I am so sorry to hear about Chuck's passing. I was just asking at the club if anyone had seen the both of you. I have great memories of Chuck being on the bank board at Lumberman's Bank and the kindness both of you showed me when I went to visit in Naples. Chuck let me play golf at his club and I lost money to him at gin after. A fair trade!

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Dear Diane,

I was saddened this morning to read of Chuck's passing and it brought to mind memories of the times we shared together with Max and the rest of "their gang" so many years ago. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers at this time. From experience I know that each day will become a little easier and you can find comfort in remembering the love you shared. Find peace and love in the arms of your friends and family.

Sincerely,

Roberta

“ Diane, Lori, Eric, Halle, and Casey, Jeff and I are so sorry for your broken hearts. May the sadness of your loss, in time, be replaced with the memories of this wonderful husband, dad, father-in-law, and granddad. It was a beautiful thing to watch, over the years, the way Chuck lovingly interacted with his family. Diane, I could tell that you were his "rock". I remember him having a sweet grin on his face when he was talking about you to me. Lori, you were the apple of his eyes. I always felt like your dad adored you. He was so happy when I saw him around you and you two just had that connection that was obvious to those around you. Eric, you were the son he never had. He admired you and was proud of you as a husband, father, friend, and business owner. Halle and Casey, he was your biggest cheerleader! He loved you like no other grandfather loves his granddaughters. He only wanted the best for you.

We will miss seeing him at the special events with your family, Lori and Eric. Thank you for allowing us the opportunities to get to know him and seeing a little bit of his warm spirit, fun personality, and caring heart.

Love and Hugs to each of you.
