

Chris M. Thow

October 9, 1948 - February 6, 2014

Chris M. Thow, born October 9th, 1948, loving father, and grandfather passed away on February 6th, 2014 at the age of 65, after a short battle with cancer. Chris grew up in Springfield, Vermont, graduated high school in 1966 and attended Lyndon State College, also in Vermont. Chris had spent the last few years living and enjoying the warmth of sunny Florida. He was the son of Charles and Geraldine Thow. Chris is survived by his two daughters, Allison Thow, Stephanie Ketcham, their mother Rose Nunes Thow, and was the proud grandfather of a two year old grandson, Jonathan. Chris had worked for Ethan Allen, J&L, and Holson Burnes companies in Vermont and New Hampshire. He was an avid reader, talented artist, with a special love for creative photography. He was well known for his love of loud music, especially jazz, blues and rock and roll. Chris's young at heart, carefree spirit endeared him in making numerous friends and connections wherever he went. He will be dearly missed. A celebration of life memorial will be held in Florida in the coming weeks and a service may be held in Vermont at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his name to the Serenity House Inc. 98 Church St. Wallingford, VT. 05773, The March of Dimes or the American Cancer Society.

“ *Rose, Allison, & Stephanie,
We are so sorry to hear about Chris. It was great to visit and share laughter with him at the 2012 (?) family gathering. We hope that your fun and happy memories of Chris will warm your hearts always. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love, Debbie & David Seward, N. Clarendon, VT*

“ Chris ~ Always fun to be with at Family functions, constant ideas of things to do and right up front on political conversations. Took time to talk with me at each and every gathering.
