Colleen graduated from Bristol High School, where she enjoyed cheerleading and band with her good friends, some of whom became life-long friends. She married Max Mosier and they lived in Virginia while he served in the Navy. In 1952 they built their house in Bristol. They were blessed with a son, Michael, in 1954.

For 21 years, until 1992, she was manager of Timberbrook Mobile Home Park in Bristol which she enjoyed for the varied responsibilities and the many residents who became friends.

She enjoyed landscaping her yard in Bristol and then in Naples. She enjoyed cooking and was an excellent baker, making pies and desserts for her family and neighbors, for which they were grateful and pleased. She will be remembered for her smile and laughter, her cheerfulness, having a persevering attitude and encouraging words for all, to be the best that they could be and to believe in the power of prayer. She will be sorely missed.
