

Courtney R. Kleinedler

July 15, 1949 - October 22, 2017

Courtney Raymond Kleinedler, 68, of Estero, FL, passed away on Sunday, October 22, 2017. Formerly of Hudson, OH and Bradenton, FL. Recently, he had moved to be closer with family in Estero, FL.

He was born July 15, 1949 in Rockford, IL, the son of Irvin and Gertrude (née Fladoos) Kleinedler.

Growing up around the game of golf, Court later became a PGA professional at various clubs throughout the state of Florida, where he taught many how to play the game he loved so much. As his life continued he became involved in Business Management relocating to raise his family outside Cleveland, OH in the town of Hudson. After his sons graduated and began their lives away from home, Court returned to Florida to enjoy the warm weather and sandy beaches.

Among his favorite things in life were spending time with his two sons, and enjoying his twilight years on Anna Maria Island.

Mr. Kleinedler is survived by his loving sons, Kyle and his wife Bethany and their daughter Charlotte of Erie, PA; Ken and his wife Sam of Estero, FL; and Pamela Brittenham their loving mother and Court's former wife of 25 years.

“ Court had many gifts. He was an excellent golfer and an excellent teacher of the game. His lesson book was usually full and mostly with women. He could have been an artist. He liked to draw and was good at calligraphy. He could do complicated percentages in his head to the amazement of my father who had graduated from MIT with honors.

Court was a better cook than I was. He was a better housekeeper than I was. He was a better card player. When Kyle was born I looked over from my hospital bed to see him rocking Kyle the tears streaming down his face. He couldn't imagine having another child because he didn't think he could love them as much as Kyle but Ken proved him wrong.

He would often say how perfect the two were. Court never went to church with me until I started to take Kyle and Ken. Then it became our Sunday ritual to go as a family.

In one of our last soulful talks on the phone he said how happy he was to have been with Charlotte for her second Birthday. He felt blessed to have seen his sons marry the girls of their dreams and to be leading full and productive lives. He believed Kyle and Ken to be his greatest achievement. His love for them was and is unconditional.

“ In the days when you two were growing up, I remember Court being "bigger than life". He was full of charisma and how you Granddad Ed loved him. He used to say that he should "sponsor" Court on the PGA circuit and he would make a fortune. Another memory is of Court sitting by the camp fire on the fourth and tossing sparklers into the fire....probably illegal and a bit dangerous but a lot of fun! Love is eternal, so you will always be able to feel that great love he has for the two of you. He would smile just looking at you.
