“ *Dear Heil Family,
I am so very Sorry for the loss of Danny. It has been many years since I have spoken to Danny but I can tell you we met in 5th grade at Hickory Ridge and I can not believe the memories that came to mind when I heard of this tragic news. Danny was a kind and sweet person and I will cherish the memories of our childhood. I still have the wooden carving he made me. Rest Easy Sweet Danny and thank you for being such a sweetheart.

“ Sad to say I had never had a chance to get to know Danny because we have lived so many miles apart for all of my life. We had the privilege to spend time with him and the family a few years ago on a trip to FL. I recall the talent he had in remodeling their home... so good to see it. My heart goes out to my brother Dick, LouAnn, Shara, Shannon, David and Doug. So sad to have such a loss so young in years. May the Lord meet and comfort you in your sorrow. With love, Julie

“ It's with heart felt sorrow to hear about the passing of a kind soul. I met Dan when we travelled to Cleveland with my brother, sister, and Shannon to visit the Heil family. Danny was the kindest of all the siblings making sure we were taken care of during our visit. He got us on jet skis on a windy Lake Erie day determined to teach us how to jet ski. He got our confidence strong and we made it. I still remember those waves which I have never experienced it in the Pacific Ocean. On and off I would hear about him and his family throughout the years but was never expecting him to go so soon. Kind people like Dan have a special place in my heart.

“ Chuck & I are saddened to hear of Danny's unexpected death. We sure did have a lot of fun during summer vacations at the lake when we were growing up. I pray that God will give each of his children peace, along with his parents, siblings, nieces, nephews, and all his family and friends. I'm sure he is having a wonderful reunion with friends and family that have already "gone home". One day we will have the pleasure to see each other again. Rest in peace cousin!

“ You were so ornery and mischievous growing up, but we always had fun! I looked up to you and wanted to do everything just like you. From smoke bombs under our shirts to singing silly songs (which I proudly sang at my pre-K concert), I loved you to pieces! Time has gotten away from us, but I'll never forget the moments we shared. Rest in peace, cousin, and be sure to tell my dad hello, until we meet again...hugs!
