

David Donald Davenport

April 9, 1951 - September 9, 2020

Mr. David D. Davenport, 69, of Cape Coral, returned to the Lord on September 9, 2020. He was the husband of Marcia Adams Davenport.

David was born on April 9, 1951, to the late LC and Evah Remaley Davenport. A natural Floridian, he grew up in Tampa where he attended and graduated from area schools. After graduation, he met his future wife Marcia Adams in the summer of 1970. They became Mr. and Mrs. Davenport in March of 1973, settling in Tampa. Shortly after the marriage, they were blessed with the first of three children; Jennifer, Stephanie and Cameron. David and family relocated throughout southwestern Florida living in San Carlos, Ft. Myers, Estero, and eventually settling in Cape Coral. He held several positions throughout his life, always with the intention of providing for his family. He was an Entenmann's employee for 16 years and a technician for Bay Area Renal ensuring the arrival of much needed medical equipment. After his retirement in 2016, he found much enjoyment in his delivery position at NAPA Auto Parts.

David had many passions in his life including many entrepreneurial pursuits, automobiles, and a deep love for fishing. He loved the Lord with all his heart and was an active member of his church. Above all was his devotion to his family, his faith, and his friends.

David is survived by his beloved wife of 47 years and their children: Jennifer

Burton and husband Eric, Stephanie Metzger and husband James, Cameron Davenport and fiancée Michelle Bostic. Brother to Shari Robinson. Grandfather to Krystal Edmonds, Kaitlyn Miller, Taylor Metzger, and Bradyn Metzger. Great-grandfather to Evey Edmonds and Lukas Miller. He was preceded in death by his brothers, the late Joseph Davenport and Philip Davenport.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Monday, September 14. 11:00 – 12:00 viewing and visitation followed by the service at 12:00 Noon in the Park Alliance Church located on 7469 San Carlos Blvd in Fort Myers. A luncheon to follow.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home.
