“ Dave was the Best Man when I married Judy, on Dec. 27, 2003 in Cape Coral, FL at Temple Beth Shalom. He was there as my friend and to make sure Rabbi Cohen adhered to all of the Jewish rules and customs. It was a great day and I will always remember it. Thank you Dave.

“ Pat,

It is with our deepest condolences that we write to you. Dave was a very nice person and loved you and his family very much. We are thinking about you and pray that you remember the times that you spent together and all of the wonderful memories you shared. May these memories remain vivid in your mind forever.

May God comfort you among the other mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

Shalom,

“ Dear Pat and Family,

We were so sorry to Hear about Dave. He was a wonderful man. He was always so personal and so caring. He often spoke of his Pat and family and of course his grandchildren while we would be meeting with him.

He took care of our accounts for a long time and became a friend.

We extend our deepest sympathy and prayers.
