

David P. Leibinger

December 11, 1948 - March 22, 2020

On Sunday, March 22, 2020, loving husband and father, David Paul Leibinger passed away at the age of 71. His mission in life was to give all he had to his family and friends, they meant everything to him. Dave especially cared about the doctors and caregivers that gave him the quality of life during his battle with cancer. He was hardworking, an artist, musician, and veteran that enjoyed spending time in the yard, being on the water, listening to Pink Floyd. Dave is survived by his loving wife Pam, daughter Clara and stepchildren Jill, Anthony, Patrick, Clark and Joy and 12 grandchildren. Dave is loved and missed by all who have known him and his memory will forever be cherished.

Tribute Wall

“ David P. Leibinger

October 09, 2023 at 03:40 AM

“ Meeting Dave was a treasure in my memory. He was a talented man. He treated his land with respect and love and the result was lush greenery. I look at his art on my wall and am treated with his imagination. Dave's gift to his family and friends will be happy memories and love .

Lynne and Joe Miceli - April 04, 2020 at 03:29 PM

“ Share the Health was purchased for the family of David P. Leibinger.

April 02, 2020 at 10:23 PM