

Delores "Dee" June Favalon

December 31, 1935 - November 5, 2017

Delores "Dee" June Favalon, 81, of Naples, FL, passed away on Sunday, November 5, 2017. Formerly of Akron, OH, she had been a Naples resident since 1989. She was born December 31, 1935 in Akron, the daughter of Edward and Mary (née Timberlake) Monk.

Dee lived a full life filled with love and adventures. She owned Dee's Closet in Kent, Ohio in the 1970s then went on to have a prosperous career in Real Estate. Some of Dee's favorite memories, which she carried up until the end, were the times she spent on the slopes as a ski instructor. Her last two years were spent with the loving caregivers and staff at Kiva at Canterbury whose love, laughter, and support made facing a terrible disease manageable. Dee's signature toast known to many was "Here's to love", this summed up what was always most important to her: LOVE.

Dee is survived by her loving children, Andrea Favalon of Naples, FL and John Koutozianes of Houston, TX; her sister, Phyllis (Craig) Fox of Norton, OH; and the light of her life her beloved granddaughter ("mini me") Michaela Favalon.

Services will be private and held at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that memorial contributions be made to:

“ While walking around our neighborhood..Dee noticed MY sandals which were the same as her sandals. I told her they were Purchase in small town in upstate New York. Too my amazement her shoes were purchased at my husband 's family shoe store.!we were friends from that day forward.

Dee was one of the nicest people I ever had the pleasure to know. She was thoughtful,kind,understanding,loyal and enjoyed a great sense of humor. Did I mention giving..I was fortunate to have her as a friend and only regret our loosing touch.The world has been diminished by her passing. My prayers are with Andrea and Michaela.
