“ *Chris,
My heart is aching since I learned of Dennis' death. No words can express how sad I am. He was a wonderful nephew and a great man. Although we didn't get to see each other but a few times since you moved to Florida, we always had fun and a few laughs with a wonderful sense of humor. I'll always remember those times and the many years when he was a youngster visiting his grandma. May God bless and comfort you and your family during this painful time.
Love,

“ I worked with Dennis at Fox for 4 years. He was the light there. He always had a smile and just seemed so happy. I would work with him in am and watched him watch videos in youtube of either Trump, poker or slot machines people won on in between customers of course. He got me watching them too. We always talked about gambling or Vegas and we all love Trump! I gave him for his bday 2 free play cards with free foild too for him and his wife. I just asked him Tuesday if he went he said he did had a great time and got the steak he always wanted. I watched him walk out the door happy as i thought i was too. That was the last time i saw him. He will forever be in my thoughts. When i go to Vegas in January, i will be thinking of him as he was happy i was going. Miss you Dennis, god be with you and your family.
