

Donald E. Gricus

November 20, 1952 - August 17, 2021

Donald "Don" Edward Gricus of Bonita Springs, Florida, passed away on August 17, 2021. He was born in Chicago, Illinois, on November 20, 1952, to the late Peter and Josephine (Normant) Gricus.

Don was predeceased by his loving wife, Patricia "Pat" (Parson) Gricus, who died June 25, 2018. Surviving Don are his step-daughter, Dottie (Brian) McDermott, six grandchildren, Sloane, Liam, Kieran, Courtney, Austin and Conor (Heather), and two great grandchildren (Max and Owen).

Don grew up in Chicago, Illinois, where he later worked for General Motors. Don was an avid Cubs and Bears fan. He also loved classic cars and particularly enjoyed attending the National Hot Rod Association drag race event held in Indiana. Don enjoyed working in the yard and landscaping. Don and Pat both loved their two dogs, 14-year-old shih tzus, Casey and Cody ("the boys"), whom they both cherished to no end. In lieu of flowers or memorials, donations are welcomed to benefit Don and Pat's friend who has adopted the boys with open arms. “ Beautiful obituary, everything said on their hit to a T.Download talking about cars especially his Buick wildcat which he absolutely adored. He has many friends in Bonita Springs who miss him dearly.
