“ Don and I were best of friends going back to when we both were 13 years old. We enjoyed so many things we did in our teen years into our twenties. We rode bikes all over the countryside going into Dudley and Charlton. We had many friends in our neighborhood that we hung out with, playing sandlot ball. We aged together, owning our own cars at age 16, and became of legal age at 21, when we enjoyed our first beers together. So many memories. Such a sad loss. He will never be forgotten.
