“ I don't even know where to start. Donna always had a smile even at times when she didn't feel well. She was such a beautiful friend both inside and out and I will always cherish the time I had with her. Heaven surely gained a beautiful angel and I am glad that one day I will see her again and that she will be without pain and enjoying being reunited with her husband, Peanuts and Darlington. Donna you will be missed.

Love You,

“ So many years and wonderful memories. From the days of Wisconsin having a Pepsi and watching the early show after the kids went to bed, working at Johnson Seafood , to hosting my wedding shower and the fun times in Florida. All my good pictures are in Michigan and I am in Illinois but the memories are there
