“ Donna was a dear friend of mine. We started our friendship when I was around 2 years of age. Her house was my second home. We managed to keep our friendship when her family moved upstate when we were in junior high. Without technology we stay friends writing letters and visiting on school holidays. She was in my wedding party. Then life got in the way. I will always cherish our childhood memories and the fun we had together. I am happy not too long ago we were able to reconnect. She has a lasting place in my heart when I recall my childhood memories. My condolences to her family and friends. May she rest in peace.
