

Dorothy Eloise Munch

June 26, 1931 - December 10, 2025

Dorothy Eloise (nee Powers) Munch of Naples, Florida passed away on December 10, 2025. Born on June 26, 1931 to Albert Powers and Dorothy M. Schissler, Dorothy was originally from South Philadelphia, PA. She and her husband, Donald L. Munch, raised their family in Newtown Square, PA, and then in Earleville, MD.

Dorothy was predeceased by her husband of 62 years, her son, Kevin Munch, and her grandson, Paul M. Wislocki. Dorothy is survived by her sons, Robert, Gary, Donald, and Brian, and her daughters, Diane Schueneman and Pamela Hawkins. In addition, she is survived by nine grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and eight great-great grandchildren.

Dorothy very much enjoyed her real estate career while living in Maryland and was known as an ethical and business-minded agent/broker. When her children were younger, she worked as a hostess at several country clubs in Delaware County, PA. She and her husband, Donald, enjoyed travelling to many places – both in the US and international – with their daughter, Diane. Once they moved to Florida, they both spent quite a bit of time on the golf course. Dorothy loved playing Bridge and Bingo with her friends and really loved going to consignment shops looking for “a good deal.”

A memorial service will be held at a later time.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to St. Leo the Great Catholic Church
