“ Fly high cuz. Still cant believe you're gone bud. I juat seen and sat and talked with you at speedway by my house while you were petitioning the other day. We're all gonna miss your crazy a and the laughs down here. You were a helluva dude bud, you never gave a damn what anyone thought, you were gonna be you and do what you wanted to do. You lived life the way you wanted to. Regardless of any criticisim or any worries or thoughts of "what if". Now we're down here left with the memories of christmas at grandma's, cruises and going four wheeling at crooms. Along with the most recent memories of just kickin back in the yard with you and brett and tossing the football around and even though we might have picked at ya now and again but we were still family bud, we all loved ya down here and we're gonna miss ya. Rest in peace Dustin, im sure your new world is alot better than ours. We'll see ya om the other side cousin.

“ - Lived in FL for 2 years && got to know you a bit . What I learned the most was how much you loved my sister. You were such an amazing man to her. You gave her the family she always wanted... You made her the happiest woman alive . You're gone , but memories never fade ... Plus you now have a son that will make sure your name stays alive. Rest easy Dusty . Wish I could attend the funeral , but being as far as I am now , it's impossible. Condolences to the Davis family && my heart cries out for my sister DJ for their loss . You guys will definitely be in my prayers .
