

Dylan Matthew Mosley

July 2, 1993 - August 13, 2016

Dylan Matthew Mosley, 23, of Estero, FL, died Saturday, August 13, 2016 in a tragic dirt bike accident. Dylan passed away doing one of the things he loved most in life. He was a lifelong resident of Southwest Florida.

There were four things that Dylan had tremendous passion for: hunting, fishing, riding dirt bikes and snowboarding. He loved the water of SW Florida, the mountains of Colorado, and the woods everywhere. His infectious smile could brighten any room and his sense of humor constantly brought laughs to all who were around him. He had a strong love and loyalty to his family and friends.

Since graduating high school, Dylan continued to hone his welding skills working with several companies. He traveled around the country building tanks for the energy and agricultural industries. At the time of his passing, he was employed by United Mechanical of Fort Myers, FL.

Dylan is survived by his loving mother, Shawn Marie Goges of Estero, FL; his brother, Jake Mosley of Estero, FL; his girlfriend, Emma Kenline of Estero, FL; grandparents, Jeff and Lynn Klopstad of Tabernash, CO; grandparents, George and Sue Goges of Naples, FL, an aunt, Sarah (John) Koors of Naples, FL, an uncle, Jesse Goges of Costa Rica, cousins, Alexis Goges-Nally, Tyler Goges, Steel and Lincoln Koors, and so many close friends.

A funeral mass will be held on Saturday, August 20, 2016, 1:30 PM, at St. William Catholic Church, 601 Seagate Drive, Naples, FL.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home.
