“ Abraham Lincoln once said, "In the end, it's not the years in your life that count, it is the life in your years that count."

Edward W. Gilroy lived his life to the fullest. He loved his wife, his family, and all his dear friends. He loved the time he had with his grandchildren. Ed enjoyed spending hours at the beach with a good book and golfing with his four friends known as, 'The Four Tops'.

My family and I admired his work ethic, wisdom, and generosity to others. He loved to laugh and make others laugh. Traveling was my parent's greatest pleasure. Dad and Mom travelled to many great places in this world that we live on. When in Florida or in South Carolina they always had to be home in time for Jeopardy.

We love you and miss you, Dad. Thank you for being a great husband, father, grandfather, and friend. I would like to think that you will always be with us in heart, spirit, and memory.
