“ Sue, Raol, Ryan, Katie and Tyler, we were so sad to hear of the passing of your Dad, your Grandfather. No person is one thing, I told my brother Tommie. "No person is 10 things," he said, and for me that's your Dad.

His life wasn't linear; it was multi-faceted, multi-dimensional, with many layers and tiers. For me, I remember taking my classes down to the gym on election days, to show the kids what voting was, what it looked like. Your Dad was the best in weaving a contextual web for them, "Do you see what's happening here?" he said. "This is a very special thing we get to do in this country." He had the kids spellbound and wide-eyed.

I have wonderful memories of each one of you and hope you feel how near God is, especially to his prophets, like Eddie Sadlowski, and those who love them. Studs and your Grandfather will have a bunch of catching up to do. Love, Pat and Larry Rohr
