“ Joyfully thankful for Eileen's shining example - with her beloved pro-life-warrior husband, Joe - of pro-life courage and perseverance; her public - and private - witness to her abiding trust in Almighty God; her deep and powerful Catholic faith, from which I learned so much; and her sweet, loving, prayerful friendship, which I miss terribly. Requiescat in pace.

(Thank you to our friend Bernadette for most of these photos.)

“ Eileen was one of the kindest women I had ever met. I only knew her from the Cenacle for Life prayer group and the Latin Mass. I wish I had gotten to know her a little better during her wonderful life. Hopefully we'll catch up in heaven some day...
