“ As the rest of the neighborhood has said previously....

Sue was a special lady!

Out with Beau & Benny, the first to greet you upon arrival to this wonderful, quite street.

Beck & I have only been there two winters, but Sue welcomed us into her home & heart, like life-long friends; maybe because we're also Buckeyes!

Sue enjoyed talks while walking the dogs(while looking for our lost tortoise), concerts at the church, mango's from our tree, the girls movie night

Rest in peace & our deepest sympathy to her entire Family.

“ It is difficult to express how much her friends and neighbor's here in Bonita will miss Sue. No matter how bright the sun shown on any particular day, Sue's sparkling smile and cheerful hello shined brighter. Although we only had the joy of living near her for a few years, we feel as though we knew her a lifetime. Even just seeing her jetting around town in her little convertible, barely able to see over the steering wheel, she brought a smile to our faces. She was royalty in our eyes. Her stories about David (who we sadly never met) and her love of animals spoke to her character, loyalty and tremendous compassion. Sue's heart was so much bigger then she was physically...Kristin and I can only take consolation in the knowledge that her aches and pains are gone forever and she'll be smiling down on us from heaven for eternity.

“ I asked Sue once, her secret for her long happy marriage. She said, its simple really, just stay married. I love this.

When Sue and Dave lived on Chase Road, Dave lost his job. She got all her Christmas lights out and strung them in the back yard. She invited all her neighbors and they had a big party, believing that it will all work out. And it DID. One week later, Dave walked into Big Drum and the rest is history.

I went to Florida a few years ago, and Sue wanted to take alligator alley to visit a restaurant she and Dave stopped at in the boat. We drove and drove to a tiny town and sue exclaimed this was it. Just as we pulled up in the parking lot, which was empty, hundreds of bikers pulled in. I was afraid for a minute, but Sue knew no stranger. She was chatting with the guys about her travels with Dave. We went into the restaurant, and she insisted I try a gator sandwich. All the bikers beat me to it and thank God, they were sold out of Gator.

“ Ray and I are so sorry to hear about Sue. She was such a special person.

I had a great time with her when I was there in June. We went shopping together several times and we had a lot of fun.

A little story: Sue ended up buying a glider that the sales person said was so simple to put together. "it's just 2 pieces, just 2 pieces", she kept saying. Well Ray and I opened the box in her living room and a hundred pieces fell out. It took 2 hours to put together and she felt so bad to keep us working so long. It was a pleasure to do something for her because she was such a nice lady. She came over the next day and gave Ray and me a gift card to a local restaurant. It was such a sweet gesture, it warmed my heart.

That was Sue. She was always so positive about everything and was so helpful with a wealth of knowledge she would share. Even though I only knew her a short time, I will truly miss her. The only thing that helps is knowing that we do have eternal life and we will see her again.

“ Sue was a good friend and neighbor. I am so glad we got to see her just 2 weeks ago while at home in florida. Watching her every day with Beau or Benny always made me feel like things were all "good in the hood". We will really miss her.

“ Aunt Sue was a very thoughtful, generous person. When the family got together at Buckeye Lake or in Bonita Springs, she was a gracious hostess. She welcomed all the kids, her own, their friends, our family, our children and would scoop up the baby and watch over them tenderly so mom and dad could go on boat rides and not have to worry. She had a very recognizable, contagious laugh that, when you heard it, there was only one person it could be.

She loved life and adored her husband and sailed around Florida and 'The Lake' with him for years and years. She was the last of the older generation in the Sutton/Dunson clan and will be greatly loved and missed. We will have to celebrate Thanksgiving without you. You will be there in our hearts and minds as we celebrate your wonderful life. Rest in peace, dear one. Thanks for being you...As is often said, "The best is yet to come!"

Love & Hugs~
