

Eleanor Hamilton Good

March 23, 1917 - July 11, 2016

Eleanor Hamilton Good, 99, of Naples, Florida died peacefully on July 11, 2016 at the Bentley Care Center in Naples, Florida. She was born in Chicago on March 23, 1917 to Francis Willard and Marguerite Erving Hamilton.

She married Carleton Robert Good on June 15, 1940 in River Forest. She graduated from Oak Park River Forest High School and the University of Illinois, raised her family in Oak Park and later moved to Inverness in the northwest suburbs. Eleanor and her husband were longtime members of Oak Park Country Club and Inverness Golf Club. They enjoyed summers with family and friends at their beautiful home on Lake Geneva in Wisconsin. After retiring and moving to Naples, she won the 9-hole golf championship at Wyndemere Country Club. Eleanor always made her voice heard and she was a strong influence on major decisions for School Health Corporation, the third generation family business which thrives today under the leadership of her grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Carleton, and her son, Robert.

Affectionately known as "Grandma Goody," she is survived by her beloved daughter, Nancy Cormack (Robert) and her two grandchildren, Scott Cormack (Jennifer) and Susan Rogers (Robert) and her six great grandchildren, Emily and Dalton Rogers, and Joshua, Gavin, Tanner and Clara Cormack.

A private family service will be held at a later date in Pecatonica, Illinois.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ Eleanor Hamilton Good

October 09, 2023 at 03:40 AM