

Elizabeth M. Lundquist

March 15, 1957 - October 31, 2025

Elizabeth M. Lundquist passed away peacefully in Estero, FL on October 31, 2025 at the age of 68. She was born on March 15, 1957 in Plainfield, NJ to the late Betty M. Lundquist and Robert w. Lundquist.

Elizabeth was a graduate of South Plainfield High School and obtained an Associate of Fine Arts degree from Chamberlain Junior College in Boston and a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. She completed a graduate course in Project Management at Stevens Institute in Hoboken, NJ.

Elizabeth was a resident of South Plainfield, NJ and Hoboken, NJ and she worked in New York City at Sheridan Associates and at NBC Studios at Rockefeller Center in their facility and planning department. She met many television personalities during her employment at NBC. She moved to Colorado in the late '90's and worked at Lockheed Martin and at Quest Communications.

She was an avid skier, hiker, traveler and bicyclist. Elizabeth loved art, especially water color and acrylic painting. She founded a business that contracted with assisted living and memory care communities in Colorado to hold painting classes.

In Colorado, Elizabeth met and married her ex-husband Charles Powers. They lived in Littleton, Colorado where they raised their daughter Erica (Erin) Powers.

Elizabeth is survived by her daughter, Erin Powers of Thornton, Co. and by her sister Kathryn Lundquist and husband Philip Tell of Bonita Springs, FL.

Private services were held by the family.
