“ *Kathy there are no words to express my sorrow. I should have too many things to tell you about him and the many good times we spent together.
A piece of my left has died with him.
May he rest in piece.

“ Kathy, I was talking with John Swope just this past Friday about Ernie and his work at Chubb Life. He said that the trips that he planned for the top producing agents were so coveted that they added percentage points to Chubb's bottom line in the effort put in by the agents to be named "Top Producers". I never saw Ernie (or you) without a genuine welcoming smile on his face whenever he saw Jill and me. And he never aged! While I know that I shall not see this wonderful friend, he is engraved in my memory bank from which there is no withdrawal.

Fondest regards and deepest condolences,

Bob Wilson

“ I'm saddened to learn of Ernie's passing. At 92, he's lived a full life for sure! Always a pleasant and soft-spoken man, he had a certain perspective on life unlike so many that is refreshing. Life is good, life is grand! I was the golf professional at his local club and always appreciated him and Kathy. May he continue the "grande life" basking in His glory.
