“ We met Wanda & Gene on a European bus tour and enjoyed their company. One memory we have is all of us nearly missing the bus because we were sitting in San Marco Piazza drinking bellinis. Wanda & Gene visited us and we often laugh thinking of Steve taking Gene on the fire truck. It was a challenge folding him in as he was so tall. We later visited them in New Jersey and were overwhelmed by Genes generosity taking us everywhere in New York. Wanda & Gene organised a fabulous dinner for one of my significant birthdays. What a night. Our time with them is one of our most favourite trips. We later all met in Las Vegas and once had an enjoyable time.

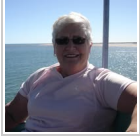

Wanda and I have exchanged emails quite regularly over the years and often wished we lived closer so we could visit.

Gene was one hell of a guy and will be so missed.

Our love to you Wanda and our thoughts are with you even though we are so far away,

“ We met Gene & Wanda On an organised Bus tour of Italy & Greece, we really got to know them after we had checked into our rooms in Assasi on the East coast of Italy, and we were on the lowest floor of the Hotel as were Gene & Wanda, to get to the dinning room we needed to get the lift , it was very small, and we met Gene & Wanda going up as well, so we agreed to share the lift, and it was a very small lift and we were all large people, well the lift started to move then got stuck between floors, so Gene said he'd fix it and proceeded to jump up and down to get the lift started, we were laughing our heads off when we got out eventually, After that we had many fun filled days and when the tour ended we kept in touch, Gene & Wanda looked after us when we went to visit them in New Jersey, lovely home, and we were given a royal tour of Washington, Capital Hill, Arlington, and all the highlights of Washington, we shared some magic moments and Gene & Wanda came out to Visit us in New Zealand when they came to look at our country, we did not have much time as they were off early to see the rest of NZ we had a lovely evening at the Sky tower, Gene & Wanda shouted us dinner, just love their company, we have kept in contact now since the mid 90's , We Shall miss Gene, a kind lovely man and great company, we share in your grief Wanda and your Family as this Sad time

Stay strong Wanda

All our love

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Ciarkowski family during this sad time. What started as a client relation quickly turned into a friendship. I will never forget our home search in Florida. I have many great memories with Gene and Wanda. Gene was never afraid to say what he felt, he reminded me of that all the time when it came to my driving. I think his honesty is what I admired most about him. A serious but sweet man with a loving heart. Gene will be missed.
