

Florence M Rybak

October 4, 1927 - June 6, 2026

Florence M. Rybak, of Naples, Florida, passed away peacefully on June 6, 2026, at the age of 98.

Born on October 4, 1927, in Buffalo, New York, Florence lived a life rooted in faith, family, and unwavering devotion to those she loved. She was the beloved daughter of John and Agatha Zugay and grew up on Kensington Avenue in Buffalo, where she attended Villa Maria Academy. Throughout her life, she cherished the memories of her childhood and remained deeply connected to her Buffalo roots.

Florence was the devoted wife of the late Alois Rybak, with whom she shared a lifetime of love, partnership, and family. In 1990, they moved to Naples, Florida, where they continued to build a home filled with warmth, kindness, and enduring values.

She was a loving mother to Paul (Irene) Rybak, David (Mary) Rybak, Michael (Stephanie) Rybak, and Cynthia (Michael) Volk, who preceded her in death. Florence's greatest joy was her family, and she took immense pride in the accomplishments and lives of her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

She was a cherished grandmother to Jeffrey Rybak, Matthew Rybak, Danielle (Tray) Batcher, and Jennifer (Ben) Palmer, and a proud great-grandmother to Logan Batcher and Ebbie Batcher. Her love, wisdom, and gentle spirit enriched the lives of all who knew her and will continue to inspire future generations.

Florence was preceded in death by her siblings, Mary (Zugay) Nowicki, Helen Rybak, Walter Zugay, Stanley Zugay, and Stella (Zugay) Ledzion. She treasured her family relationships and remained close to her loved ones throughout her life.

Florence leaves behind a legacy of love, compassion, and dedication to family. Though she will be deeply missed, her memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

May she rest in eternal peace.
