

Francis G. McNulty Jr.

April 8, 1943 - July 4, 2025

Francis G. McNulty, Jr., known to most as Frank, passed away at home in Estero, Florida on July 4, 2025. In his final days, he was surrounded by his wife of 57 years as well as his children.

Even though Frank came from a small coal mining town, everything about Frank was big: big heart, big drive, big personality. He was a self-made man from the very start, who not only put himself through high school, but two degrees in college as well. Basketball was a big part of who he was, as the center on a state championship team.

Frank had a few things in life that were especially important to him: family, faith, freedom, funny jokes, Ford, and friends.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara, daughters Erin (Jose) Diaz, Colleen (Ken) Robertson, Kerri (Chris) Bagosy and his grandchildren.

His philosophy was that it's never the wrong time to do the right thing. We will miss you, our gentle giant.

In lieu of flowers, a memorial contribution may be made to the Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville, Florida.

Visitation will be on Friday July 18, 2025 at 10 am at Our Lady of Light Catholic Church, Fort Myers, Florida with a mass of remembrance starting at 10:30am.

Melinda and Bruce. Thank you for your kind words. It is still a shock and hard to believe. Things are so different now but life does go on. Thanks again
