“ We were saddened to hear the news of Uncle Gary’s passing. Most of my memories of Uncle Gary are of a quick-witted jokester, full of energy, avid sports fan, golfing enthusiast, easy to like.

I would like to share a memory of Uncle Gary that I cherish. We were at an anniversary party for Uncle Gary and Aunt Nancy at a park near Greendale. It was a celebration of their love and marriage. It was their day and yet Uncle Gary took time out to honor a World War II veteran who attended the party, my Dad and his brother in law. It was a short salute, but it made a huge impact on me. I have thought about that moment often.

That was the kind of man Uncle Gary was, selfless, loving family man, gracious to a fault.

Rest in Peace, Uncle Gary.

You will be missed, remembered and forever loved.
