

George Edward Haggerty Jr.

February 19, 1934 - December 27, 2013

George Edward Haggerty Jr., of Naples, Florida, passed away peacefully on December 27, 2013. He was born in Andover, Massachusetts on February 19, 1934 to Mary Agnes (née Sullivan) and George Edward Haggerty Sr.

He was raised in Winchester, Massachusetts and attended Winchester High School. He was a great swimmer, enjoyed reading history books on the early presidents and in younger days had been an avid tennis player. He studied Chemical Engineering at Northeastern University and Lowell Textile, now part of UMass Lowell. He married Judith Vaughan Leavy, the love of his life and raised their two daughters in Chelmsford, MA.

In his early career, George was a chemical colorist in a leather tannery, a chemist at several companies and a chemical salesman to the paper industry before becoming President/Owner of a successful national and international waste chemical cleansing and recycling company. He continued to broker chemicals with his many contacts well into retirement. George loved to travel the world with Judy and enjoyed summering at their coastal Maine home near Kennebunkport, ME.

He is survived by his daughters, Lauren E. Eveland of Naples, FL, and Carolyn J. (Mark) Sullivan of New Durham, NH. George loved spending time with and sharing the individual interests of each of his five grandchildren: Kelly

Sullivan of Fort Myers, FL., Christopher Sullivan of Quincy, MA., Reid Sullivan of New Durham, NH., and Alexander and Andrew Eveland of Naples FL.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Judith, his brother John G. Haggerty and his sister Elizabeth Anne (Haggerty) Gunnery.

He is survived by his brother Paul C. Haggerty and many nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that memorial contributions be made to The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, www.lls.org. Interment will be at Puritan Lawn Memorial Park in Peabody Massachusetts, to include a 'Celebration of Life' at a future date.

Arrangements are being handled by Shikany's Bonita Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ George Edward Haggerty Jr.

October 09, 2023 at 03:40 AM

“ We are all saddened to now learn of George's passing so soon after Judy

Our thoughts and prayers are with them

Bob LaPorte

Hoyt Neck and Chelmsford

Bob LaPorte - January 06, 2014 at 04:21 PM